Clerk of Superior Court

§ 7A-101. Compensation.

The clerk of superior court is a full-time employee of the State and shall receive an annual salary, payable in equal monthly installments, based on the population of the county, as determined by the 1970 Federal decennial census, according to the following schedule:

Population	Salary
Less than 15,000	$ 20,019
25,000 to 49,999	27,000
50,000 to 99,999	37,000
100,000 to 199,999	47,000
200,000 and above	57,000

When a county changes from one population group to another as a result of any future decennial census, the salary of the clerk shall be changed to the salary appropriate for the new population group as of July 1 of the first full biennium subsequent to the taking of the census (July 1, 1980; July 1, 1990; etc.), except that the salary of an incumbent clerk shall not be reduced by any change in population group during his continuance in office.

The clerk shall receive no fee or compensation by virtue of his office. The salary set forth in this section is the clerk's base official compensation. Not after June 30, 1975, the salary of a particular clerk, by reason of previous but no longer authorized merit increments, is higher than that set forth in this table, that higher salary shall not be reduced during his continuance in office. (1969, c. 310, s. 1; 1987, c. 691, s. 5; 1989, c. 1183, s. 3; 1991, c. 697, s. 1; s. 1993, c.

The clerk of superior court is a full-time employee of the State and shall receive an annual salary, payable in equal monthly installments, based on the population of the county, as determined by the 1970 federal decennial census, according to the following schedule:

Population	Salary
Less than 19,999	$ 20,016
20,000 to 49,999	23,664
50,000 to 99,999	27,300
100,000 to 199,999	30,936
200,000 and above	37,608

When a county changes from one population group to another as a result of any future decennial census, the salary of the clerk shall be changed to the salary appropriate for the new population group on July 1 of the first full biennium subsequent to the taking of the census (July 1, 1981; July 1, 1991; etc.), except that the salary of an incumbent clerk shall not be decreased by any change in population group during his continuance in office.

The clerk shall receive no fees or commission by virtue of his office. The salary set forth in this section is the clerk's sole official compensation, but if, on June 30, 1975, the salary of a particular clerk, by reason of previous but no longer authorized merit increments, is higher than that set forth in the table, that higher salary shall not be reduced during his continuance in office. (1965, c. 310, s. 1; 1967, c. 691, s. 5; 1969, c. 1186, s. 3; 1971, c. 877, ss. 1, 2; 1973, c.

Effect of Amendments. —

The 1981 amendment, effective January 1, 1982, increased the salaries in the table at the end of the first paragraph to their present levels from $19,056, $22,536, $25,992, $29,460, and $35,808 respectively.

Creation and Organization of the District Court Division.

§ 7A-133. Numbers of judges by districts; numbers of magistrates and additional seats of court, by counties.

Editor's Note. —

Session Laws 1981, c. 964, s. 4(b) as amended by Session Laws 1981, c. 997, s. 1, provides: "The four current district court judges allocated to the seventeenth judicial district are to serve in both judicial districts 17A and 17B until the first Monday in December, 1982. In 1982 and quadrennially thereafter, two district judges shall be elected in judicial district 17A for four-year terms, with filing in accordance with G.S. 163-106(d). In 1982 two district judges shall be elected in judicial district 17B for four-year terms, with filing for the two seats to be at-large and without designation of vacancy; and in 1986 and quadrennially thereafter, two district judges shall be elected in judicial district 17B for four-year terms, with filing in accordance with G.S. 163-106(d)."

ARTICLE 16.

Magistrates.

§ 7A-171.1. Duty hours and salary.

The Administrative Officer of the Courts, after consultation with the chief district judge and pursuant to the following provisions, shall set an annual salary for each magistrate.

- (1) A full-time magistrate, so designated by the Administrative Officer of the Courts, shall be paid the annual salary indicated in the table below according to the number of years he has served as a magistrate. The salary steps shall take effect on the anniversary of the date the magistrate was originally appointed:

Table of Salaries of Full-Time Magistrates

Number of prior years of service	Annual salary
Less than 1	$ 9,936
1 or more but less than 3	10,800
3 or more but less than 5	11,796
5 or more but less than 7	12,864
7 or more but less than 9	14,052
9 or more	15,372

A "Full-time magistrate" is a magistrate who is assigned to work an average of not less than 40 hours a week during his term of office.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this subdivision, a full-time magistrate, who was serving as a magistrate on December 31, 1978, and who was receiving an annual salary in excess of that which would ordinarily be allowed under the provisions of this subdivision, shall not have the salary, which he was receiving reduced during any subsequent term as a full-time magistrate. That magistrate's salary shall be fixed at the salary level from the table above which is nearest and higher than the latest annual salary he was receiving on December 31, 1978, and, thereafter, shall advance in accordance with the schedule in the table above.

- (2) A part-time magistrate, so designated by the Administrative Officer of the Courts, shall receive an annual salary based on the following formula: The average number of hours a week that a part-time magistrate is assigned work during his term shall be multiplied by the annual salary payable to a full-time magistrate who has the same number of years of service prior to the beginning of that term as does the part-time magistrate and the product of that multiplication shall be divided by the number 40. The quotient shall be the annual salary payable to that part-time magistrate.

A "part-time magistrate" is a magistrate who is assigned to work an average of less than 40 hours of work a week during his term. No magistrate may be assigned an average of less than 10 hours of work a week during his term.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this subdivision, upon reappointment as a magistrate and being assigned to work the same or greater number of hours as he worked as a magistrate for a term of office ending on December 31, 1978, a person who received an annual salary in excess of that to which he would be entitled under the formula contained in this subdivision shall receive an annual salary equal to that received during the prior term. That magistrate's salary shall increase in accordance with the salary formula contained in this subdivision.

- (3) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, a beginning full-time magistrate with a two-year Associate in Applied Science degree in criminal justice or paralegal training from a North Carolina community college or technical institute or the equivalent degree from a private educational institution in North Carolina, may be initially employed at the annual salary provided in the table above for a magistrate with "3 or more but less than 5" years of service; a beginning full-time magistrate with a four-year degree from an accredited senior institution of higher education may be initially employed at the annual salary provided in the table above for a magistrate with "5 or more but less than 7" years of service; a beginning full-time magistrate who holds a law degree from an accredited law school may be employed at the annual salary provided in the table for a magistrate with "7 or more but less than 9" years of service; and a beginning full-time magistrate who is licensed to practice law in North Carolina may be initially employed at the annual salary provided in the table for a magistrate with "9 or more" years of service. Seniority increments for a magistrate with a two or four-year degree or a law degree described herein accrue thereafter at two-year intervals, as provided in the table.

Magistrates with a two or four-year degree or a law degree described herein who became magistrates before July 1, 1979 are entitled to an increase of three, five and seven years, respectively, in their seniority, for pay purposes only. Full-time magistrates licensed to practice law in North Carolina who became magistrates before July 1, 1979 are entitled to the pay of a magistrate with 9 or more years of service, and part-time magistrates holding a law degree or a license to practice law as described above who became magistrates before July 1, 1979 are entitled to a proportionate adjustment in their pay. Pay increases authorized by this subdivision are not retroactive. (1977, c. 945, s. 5; 1979, c. 838, s. 84; c. 991; 1979, 2nd Sess., c. 1137, s. 11; 1981, c. 914, s. 1; c. 1127, p. 11.)

Effect of Amendments. —

The 1981 amendment, effective January 1, 1982, increased all salaries in subdivision (1).

Session Laws 1981, c. 1127, s. 89, contains a severability clause.
